

Sleep Tight

The Creepshow

Undead eyes...

You made a promise
a promise to me
my darling angel
you just couldn't keep

I just wanted to love you have you forever
being together
just you and me

But you couldn't take it didn't want me no more now my body's hidden cold under your floor

And now that it's over you're never alone
so sorry to tell you this ain't where I belong

Oh, sleep tight my boy
you should've though it out oh you can't kill a girl without her soul sticking around

I've been watching
with undead eyes
(undead eyes)

Well I pleaded and I cried I don't wanna die tonight but you didn't listen baby when you put out my lights

Oh, little did you know Our true love would last when you ripped my bloody heart out and you threw it in the trash

you can't kill a girl
without her soul sticking around

Oh sleep tight my boy.
I'll be watching
With undead eyes.

It don't matter boy
if you're begging me to leave well, it looks like love has got you right down on your knees

You silly boy

you should've listen as I screamed well you thought you'd avoided it all and now I'm all that you see

you should've thought it out

I'll be watching you
with undead eyes...
