The Garden

The Creepshow

There's a dark fading light In the garden where you Lay your head tonight Through the darkened hours Were you thinking of me? A state of sleep Is what you'd rather be

There's a pale Purple moonlight In the garden where you Lay your head to die Frozen dreams and nightmares Have you forgetting a dream Of what you always thought You could have been?

Hey don't draw the line Did you know that you're right? So baby blue don't cry Don't you go now... Don't you go now...

There's a stale morning light In the garden where you lay All through the night Through this poisoned nightmare Have you set yourself free With thoughts and dreams Of what you're gonna be?

Hey don't draw the line Did you know it'll be all right? So baby blue don't cry Don't you go now... Don't you go now...

Hey don't draw the line Did you know it'll be all right? My baby blues don't cry Don't you go now... Don't you go now... Hey don't draw the line Did you know that you're right? So baby blue don't cry Don't you go now... Don't you go now...
