My Life Flashed Before My Eyes

The Cribs

The wrong time, the wrong place Your talent scouts my lonely face Of all the things i can't replace Your talent scouts my lonely face Yeah

Well it's alright, although i know you lied I don't mind
It's alright, although i know you lied
I don't mind

The wrong time, the wrong place Your talent scouts my lonely face Of all the things i can't escape Your talent scouts my lonely face Yeah

Well i'm alright, although i know you lied I don't mind If my life flashed before my eyes Do you think I'd mind? No

And now, you don't need mine
You let us down
You watched us die
Now, I hang around
With people i don't even know
