

Doomsday King

The Crown

111

Thou art 1

No trust in man
No trust in might
No trust in gold

No trust in man
No trust in might
No trust in gold

The devil moves me still Hell in every breath I take

Fire without flame
Burn without light
Not without pain

Through a final state of blasphemy
To a place where
I can set my spirit free

There is no god but god
Only the lord is lord
To give myself to god
Is to give god to the world

No trust in man
No trust in might
No trust in gold

No trust in man
No trust in might
No trust in gold

No earthly power can hold my soul
Thralls and titans fall before the storm

There is no god but god
Only the lord is lord
Awaken to life out of death
Once and again
By the doomsday king

In service of the one

I am he beyond myself
I walk on holy ground again

My eyes are glowing in the absolute flow
Wash my heart with snow

There is no god but god
Only the lord is lord
To give myself to god
Is to give god to the world
There is no god but god

Only the lord is lord
Awaken to life out of death
Once and again
By the doomsday king
