

Face of Destruction - Deep Hit of Death

The Crown

Endless structures rise and fall
Enormous waves ever roll
The all of your soul
The strings of your world
Breaking away
Explode from inside
A needle point at the horizon
Shooting down from a murderous sky
Growing fast
Approaching the rolling power
Smattering force
Face of destruction - deep hit of death
Reflecting in your animal eyes
With no mercy at its hands
Stop your blood in hopeless fear
One look in its eyes
And everyone denies
That they ever have seen
The light in its shine
One taste of its, black
You know there's no way back
As you stand before death
All alone
Dead are your tears
As the deep hit of death shatters your soul
With no mercy at command
You return to ever rolling waves
Chainstorm reaction
Fast black knife
Bitter shine
Driving the spike deep through your mind
Weak and mean
All is energy
One and the same
Can't be destroyed
Just changing form
The all of your soul
The strings in your world
Breaking away
Growing fast
Approaching the rolling power
Shattering force
Face of destruction - deep hit of death
Reflecting in your carrion eyes
With no mercy at its hands
Make you lose your human form
Die into eternity!
...Deep ...Deep ...Hit ...of Death
