

World Below

The Crown

A wicked heart prowls through the void
That lives dormant deep inside
In violent rapture now behold
The harvester of souls
At the seven gates the seal is broken
As sulphur dreams unfurl
Into the depths of no return
Your souls will be cast to burn
Suicide - Dead inside - Inject your horrors' blood
Hell unfurls - On the world
But no-one seeks the cause
To decide if the life is wirth all its' pretend
Hollow shells - Left to die
Seeking still the spark of life
As I cast aside the chains of life
A world below for us - Born to die
It takes a poisoned heart to see the light
Buried deep inside
Spewing forth the burning black
Suicide - Dead inside - Inject your horrors' blood
Hell unfurls - On the world
But no-one seeks the cause
To decide if the life is wirth all its' pretend
Seeking still the spark of life
As I cast aside the chains of life
A world below for us - Born to die

Afraid inside - Born to die - Left aside
Staring down into a World Below

As I cast aside the chains of life
A world below for us - Born to die
