

Elemental Light

The Cult

I run into the wild places
I'm so alive.
Search for the others' traces
And I'm so alive.

Every one of us feels alone inside
And every one of us has forgotten our name.

Elemental light
You're beautiful, you're beautiful.
Elemental light, she's beautiful, she's beautiful.

Awake unto a golden home
I'm so alive.

Elemental light
You're beautiful, you're beautiful.

Every one of us feels alone inside
Every one of us has forgotten our way.

Elemental light, you're beautiful, you're beautiful
Elemental light, she's beautiful, she's beautiful.

I run into those wild places
And I feel so alive.

Elemental light, you're beautiful, you're beautiful
Elemental light, she's beautiful, she's beautiful.
