

It Used to Be Me

The Cure

All he needs is everyone I've been
All she needs is anyone I've seen
All they need anything I've touched
All you need is everything I've loved

Everything I've heard
Everything I've learned
Everything I've tried
Everything I've held
Everything I've felt
Everything I've lost
Everything I've cried

Until my whole head shrieks
With grinding my teeth
Struggling to find a single word
That I can keep

Any kind of truth
Any kind of hope
Just any kind of word
And though it doesn't make me choke

But I can say I will
And I won't
I keep saying I do
And I don't
I keep saying I feel
But there's nothing to feel
Just a strange kind of nothing
Where there used to be me
Used to be me
Used to be me

All he need from me
Is everyone I've ever missed
All she needs from me
Everyone I've ever kissed
All they need from me
Anything I've ever sung
All you need from me
Is everything I've ever said

Everything I've ever done
Everything I've ever loved
Everything I've ever written
Everything I've ever believed
Everything I've ever touched
Everything I've ever loved
Everything I've ever thought
Everything I've ever dreamed

Until my whole head screams
Desperate to find a single word I can keep
Any kind of day
Any kind of fix

I just any kind of word
That doesn't make me sick
And I can say that I will
But I don't
And I can say that I do
But I don't
And I can say that I feel
But there's nothing to fee
Where there used to be me

Anything and everything all that you need
Get it for free
Anything and everything all that you need
Get it from me
Anything and everything all that you need
You get it for free
Anything and everything all that you need
You get it from me
Get it from me
Get it from me...
