

Against My Enemies

The Damnation

I wage a war inside my mind
Too late to take it back
I'm looking for the end
Controlled by pain inside
I battle with open visor
For this world in vain
I kill in bloody chaos
All of my enemies

I'm full of despair
Surrounded by eyes of hate
I never lose my might
My splendour will not decried

I've got the power to destroy
The symbols of hypocrisy
I try to find my path
And smashed'em all away
I'm ready to attack
I resist so I'm free
You will never break me down
Because I live to win

I'm full of despair
Surrounded by eyes of hate
I never lose my might
My splendour will not decried

To walk the path which sets me free
There's no way out!
I'd rather die
Than be like you
Over the edge
Never break through

I struggle to feel my selfish heart
There's no way out!
From genocide
Fire shall come
I'm one to blame
I will forever remain
