

Creep

The Damned

think you're pretty mean, acting sixteen looking real tough, ain't anger enough with your harlem clothes, try and act with your pose well if i look in your eyes just run and hide

(chorus)

you can't, you can't fool me (2x) now the actions begun you ain't scaring no-one just back in a quick, you only make me feel sick just go on home, leave us alone go and beat up your cat, i bet, i bet you're good at that

(chorus)
