

No More Tears

The Damned

Feeling crazy in a crowd
So alone, and I don't know why
Don't always seem so right inside
There's a change and it's
It's, always rising
Should I laugh, should I cry
Should I just let it go
No more time to change my mind
It's on with the show
And no more tears
Sure enough the clouds will cry
To wash away this, this mood
That I'm feeling
In the shadows cut from life
See the faces, as they roll on by
Should I laugh, should I cry
Should I just let it go
No more time to change my mind
It's just on with the show
Just no more tears
