

Nothing

The Damned

Lines of blood laughing down the line
Coffee cups with the devil signs
Eyes on bills passing through your hands
Look in my eye for your bio-scans
Nothing - Nothing
Nothing - will ever change it
Nothing - Nothing
The lunatics now run the madhouse
The wise old owl sticks in his claws
Feel the chill of those insanity laws
Tippy toeing through the ID age
Like a monkey in a global cage
Nothing - Nothing
Nothing - will ever change it
Nothing - Nothing
The lunatics now run the madhouse
Keystone cops leave a bitter taste
Isolation from a friendly face
Wheels in wheels only turn one way
It's another whitewash day today
Nothing - Nothing
Nothing - will ever change it
Nothing - Nothing
The lunatics now run the madhouse
Nothing - Nothing
Nothing - will ever change it
Nothing - Nothing
The lunatics now run the madhouse
Lines of blood laughing down the line
Coffee cups with the devil signs
Eyes on bills passing through your hands
Look in my eye for your bio-scans
