

Green

The Dandy Warhols

You opened the door
I left myself in. Between you and me, I only believe what I want to.
I guess its because I'm greener then green,
Only because I'm green.
Only because I'm green.

I came up to your floor,
You were dressed just a little Obscene.
And it shut me down
Quite sexually as a pre-
Adolescent because I'm greener then I'm green.
Only because I'm green.
Only because I'm green.
Only because I'm greener then green.

Only because I'm greener then green.
Only because I'm green.
Only because I'm green.
Only because I'm green.
Only because I'm greener then green.
