

Mohammed

The Dandy Warhols

Again and again I get up and say
I only want to get it right.
I only want to do the right thing,
but are these demons, I ask myself.

I wonder today, I'm alone, but then
No one can make their own life.
No one can say that they're an island
When all this freedom that you get is a lie.
