

Stars

The Dandy Warhols

I Thought I could touch the stars I lie awake at night I wonder where you are My face explodes Tear-drops into tears And every second I'm not with you Well, it seems like years.

I've warned you I kill you and I love you, yeah, yeah

I won't die But I don't feel the same I spend up all of my time
Trying to see you again My face explodes Tear-drops into tears
And every second i'm not with you Well it seems like years.

And I told you I'd kill you And I love you, yeah, yeah.

My face explodes Tear-drops into tears And every second i'm not with you Well it seems like years.

And I warned you That I'd kill you And I love you, yeah, yeah.
