

Cruel Cruel Fate

The Datsuns

Well it's no use to talk it over
Talk it over again

I've seen dark clouds
They're rolling
Rolling in

We crashed and burned
But we tried anyway
Crashed and burned
But you're still you say

You ask me was it
Cruel, cruel fate?
Or our mistakes
Well, it doesn't matter now either way

Cruel, cruel fate
Or our mistakes
Well, it doesn't matter now either way

Stone cold seeping through your toes
Hollow beg and steal and borrow
All the time back?

What's the point,
You're such a hopeless case
And the question still lingers on your face

You ask me was it
Cruel, cruel fate?
Or our mistakes
Well, it doesn't matter now either way

Well if its written in stone
It's easy that you know
To tell you girl, that's the truth
Cruel, cruel fate
Why must we play this game?

Well it's no use to talk it over
Talk it over again

I've seen dark clouds, they're rolling
Maybe they'll roll back out again

Well what's the point,
You're such a hopeless case
The question still lingers on your face

You ask me was it, ooh yeah, was it
Hey! hey! yeah yeah yeah yeah, hey!

You ask me was it
Cruel, cruel fate?
Or our mistakes
Well, it doesn't matter now either way
