Hurting Inside

The Dave Clark Five

I'll never know Why did you leave me Those tears that show Are they really grieving me I know I lied The tears are in my eyes Now you'll never know

That it's hurting inside, hurting inside You'll never know, you'll never know

Have I done so wrong That you won't take me back now I'm tryin' to be strong I hold my tears back now But if you don't care About the tears I'll shed Then let me know

Because it's hurting inside, hurting inside You'll never know, you'll never know

You'll never know, you'll never know

Won't you come on home And please forgive me I promise I won't roam If you say you still love me I'll hold you dear I'll hold you near Close to my heart And it won't hurt me inside, hurt me inside Our love will go on, our love will go on
