

The Secret Place

The Daysleepers

there`s a place we run to no one sees
a place untouched
by human dreams
water flows, in truest blue brings to life a dream of you

I can`t go back to`life as it was

this place i go
cannot be seen
save for eyes
mixed blue and green dragonflies high in the air thoughts of you dance everywhere

I can`t go back
to`life as it was

come on let`s leave this place We disappear without a trace

Vanish into the air
you cannot find us anywhere

Come on love leave this fear we can erase forgotten years
