The Secret Place

The Daysleepers

there's a place we run to no one sees a place untouched by human dreams water flows, in truest blue brings to life a dream of you

I can`t go back to`life as it was this place i go cannot be seen save for eyes mixed blue and green dragonfies high in the air thoughts of you dance everywhere

I can't go back to'life as it was come on let's leave this place We disappear without a trace

Vanish into the air you cannot find us anywhere

Come on love leave this fear we can erase forgotten years
