

I Didn't Mean To Say That

The dB's

I didn't mean to say that
I didn't mean to go there
My mind plays tricks on me but
I didn't really play them

So what are we to do
What do I have to prove
I didn't mean to say that

It isn't what you're thinking
It isn't that at all
I wasn't in my right mind
And so you took the fall

So what are we to do
If only we knew
I didn't mean to say that

I didn't mean to say you weren't right
If it reverted one more night
Despite my better judgment
You just might be so cross
I didn't mean to call you off
I didn't mean to call you down, around, or anything

I wouldn't want to say that
We're coming to the last lap
It never would've occurred to me
It never did again
So what would you prefer
Was it never what we were
I could be fine fine with that

But I wouldn't want to say that
No I wouldn't want to say that
No I wouldn't want to say that
