

I Feel Good (Today)

The dB's

It felt good, you walked into the room
Oh, saying nothing, you walked into the room
It felt bad just to hear you say
I feel good, good today

Vividly, you and the lipstick blur
Lawn soiree, crashing the Thunderbird
It felt bad to try to pretend
I feel good, good again

Running jumping in the air
Running jumping everywhere
Lazy bones laissez affaire
Regel 'round the singles blare
All of us may be confused
But is that bad (I won't say)
Maybe we should (I can't say)
I feel good
I feel good

Running scared, out of a long, cold sweat
We were running scared, out of a long, cold sweat
It felt bad, lost on the parkway
I feel good, good today

Running jumping in the air
Running jumping everywhere
Lazy bones laissez affaire
Regel 'round the singles blare
All of us may be confused
But is that bad (I won't say)
Maybe we should (I can't say)
I feel good
I feel good, good, good

It felt good, you walked into the room
Oh, saying nothing, I walked out of that room
It felt bad in my disarray
I feel good, good today
I feel good, good today
I feel good, good today
I feel good, good today
