I Thought You Wanted To Know

I want to know what it is that we're looking for You say to me in a voice that's both soft and sore I've got the key, it's just that I don't think anymore I am in the air, I don't have a care I thought you wanted to know I thought you wanted to know

I turn to you when I'm feeling low or blue You turn to me when you think that you've found a clue We turn around, and we never really stand quite still But I don't really care I don't really care I don't even care Now I'm in the air I don't really care I don't really care I don't really care anymore

I want to know what it is that we're looking for You say to me in a voice that's both soft and sore I've got the key I just don't think anymore I thought you wanted to know I thought you wanted to know
