

Love Is For Lovers

The dB's

Do you remember when blue was the feeling
Gray was the weather, one was the number?
Do you remember when love was for others?
Now and forever, love is for lovers

Do you believe that real love is right now?
Could we be having the time of our lives now?
Do you believe this?
Do you believe this?

Now every day is like summer vacation
Christmas and birthday rolled into one day
Now every night is a special occasion
Where does it all end? Maybe next someday
Can you believe this love is forever?
Can you conceive of anything better?
Do you believe this?
Do you believe this is love?

Oh, love is for lovers
Love is for lovers
Love is for lovers

Do you believe that love is a sure thing?
You say hello and I hit the ceiling
Do you believe this?
Do you believe this is love?

Oh, love is for lovers
Love is for lovers
Love is for lovers

I used to think that love was for pleasure
More like adventure, measure for measure
It's plain to me that we can't rise above it
No one's a lover just 'cause they love it
And if you're happy then you oughta stay there
I'm not certain that I know the way there

Do you believe this?
Do you believe this?
Do you believe this?
Do you believe this is love?

Oh, love is for lovers
Love is for lovers
Love is for lovers
Oh, love is for lovers
Love is for lovers
Love is for lovers
Love is for love is for lovers
