

She's Green I'm Blue

The dB's

She's got something that she wanted to say
I wouldn't listen, no I'd run away
All my pals are out tonight
So why I am I so uptight?
She's green, I'm blue

In the morning moving kind of slow
By the evening, didn't want to know
Up ahead the moon is bright
But here on Earth it's dark as night
She's green, I'm blue

All of my life I had one thing
All of your life you had two
You thought that you were my only
I thought that I was your fool

She had something that she wanted to say
I wouldn't listen, no I ran away
All my pals were in a fight
So why I was I so uptight
She's green, I'm blue
She's green, I'm blue, blue, I'm blue

That's when I first said
That's when I first said
That's when I first said
That's when I first said
