

Today Could Be The Day

The dB's

Sometimes I think the one for me
Hasn't happened yet
And sometimes I do play hard to get
But today could be the day

Today could be my lucky day
It could be up in the road ahead
And then again it could be miles behind me by now
But it's really hard to say
Today could be the day

Some days the phone rings off the wall
Some days it's not so much
And some days it does not ring at all
But today could be the day

Sometimes I think of things that I want
They're so much closer to me now
And sometimes they're just a breath away
But it's really hard to say
Today could be the day
Today could be the day, day, day, day
Day, day, day, day, day

Sometimes I think the one for me
Hasn't happened yet
And sometimes I do play hard to get
But today could be the day
Today could be the day
Today could be the day
Today could be the day
Today could be the day
