

We Should Be In Bed

The dB's

We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
When it all goes 'round your head
We should be in bed
We should be in bed

I've got a new girl
She is just like that
And we hold it, we hold it all so tight
She says she thinks that
Love's an acrobat
Well I don't know if she's wrong but that's all right

We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
When it all goes 'round your head
We should be in bed
We should be in bed

La la la la la

I got a message
A number to call
At the end of the line I heard her say
I've got a message
A number to call
Well it wasn't for me but that's okay

We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
When it all is done and said
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
We should be in bed
