

Time Has Gone

The Dead Brothers

Your eyes they swim in alcohol
You give away the flower
They buy you drinks
To keep you here
A whisky for an hour

I say goodbye to my hometown
The butcher still is sleeping
The smell of blood
Be open road
Where witness to me leaving

Ooooh time without is gone
Ooooh time has flown

The search for you throw me away
Alide and fridge from the window
And now to see I hear your name
A Balkans from the shadow

All things takes time he told me ones
And kiss me on the ocean
The engine wants a big black heart
And now the time is taken

Ooooh time without is gone
Ooooh time has flown
