

Rock 'n' Roll Queen (originally By Mott The Hoople)

The Dead Milkmen

Listen, woman, you needn't look so stupid
When I call your name out loud
'Cos everybody thinks you're a sweet-smelling girl
With intelligence you know how
I wouldn't want anyone else to know
About the way you really are
You're just a Rock and roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a Rock and roll star

Listen, woman, you needn't go to bed
With everybody that you meet
'Cos everybody thinks you're a sweet little girl
With intelligence in your feet
I wouldn't want anyone else to know
About the way you really are
You're just a Rock and roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a Rock and roll star

You're just a Rock and roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a Rock and roll star
