

Nuthin' But A Reject

The Dead Rabbits

All I need is the air I breathe,
To get through anything.
All I need are the ones by me,
Who kill my misery.
I don't need you,
Holding me down.
Can you feel the earth shaking?
I'm breakin' out of this coffin underground

Don't try to speak
I know exactly what you're thinkin'.
My head, I'm over my head.
You've always said that
I was nuthin' but a reject.
You're no friend,
You're no friend to me so please relax. (Please Relax)
I'm moving on not looking back, you're now my past.

I don't need your hostility,
You're just another jealous enemy.
Your opinion means nothing,
Just let me be.
I don't need you holding me down,
Can you see the wall's crumble!
I'm breakin' out of this prison they call doubt.

Don't try to speak
I know exactly what you're thinkin'.
My head, I'm over my head.
You've always said that
I was nuthin' but a reject.
You're no friend,
You're no friend to me so please relax. (Please Relax)
I'm moving on not looking back, you're now my past.

To me, you're dead and buried, your memory is fading beneath my feet.
To me, you're dead and buried, your memory is fading beneath my feet.

Don't try to speak
I know exactly what you're thinkin'.
My head, I'm over my head.
You've always said that
I was nuthin' but a reject.
You're no friend, You're dead to me!

Don't try to speak
I know exactly what you're thinkin'.
My head, I'm over my head.
You've always said that
I was nuthin' but a reject.
You're no friend, You're no friend to me!
You're dead and buried, your memory is fading beneath my feet.
