

The Air I Breathe Is You

The Dead Rabbits

I'm gonna die here!
Don't tell me this is happening,
I won't accept the truth,
I can't survive without you.
And I've been bending to the winds of change,
Why can't good things just stay the same?

I'm suffocating without you,
My lungs are burning and I'm turning blue,
I am so terrified to have you out of my life,
Gonna die if it's true,
Cause the air I breathe is you.

Don't you dare walk out that door,
Don't leave me lying broken,
Melting into the floor
I'm held down by anxiety
What curse did you cast upon me?

I cannot breathe,
I'm suffocating.

I'm suffocating without you,
My lungs are burning and I'm turning blue,
I am so terrified to have you out of my life,
Gonna die if it's true,
Cause the air I breathe is you.

Why must you go,
You stole my heart so,
Why must I live alone?

I'm gonna die here!
I'm gonna die here!

I'm suffocating without you,
My lungs are burning and I'm turning blue,
I am so terrified to have you out of my life,
Gonna die if it's true,
Cause the air I breathe is you.

You!
The air I breathe is you!
You!
Air I breathe is you!
