No Hassle Night

The Dead Weather

I'm looking for a place to go Where the sun goes down And stays down I'm looking for a place to go Where I can lay low Die slow

My baby, she's uptight Her face is frozen in daylight My darlin', she's a drifter Nothing out there seems to fit her

I'm looking for a no hassle night I've become her and it hurts my mind I'm looking for a no hassle night I've become her and it hurts my mind I'm looking for a no hassle night

My baby, she's a burglar Nothing I know, can deter her I'm looking for a place to go Where the sun goes down I can lie low
