

Fall And Flee

The Dear Hunter

We all become memories after having gone.
Dancing in the light flickering behind their eyes.

I'm hoping it's showing my heart never stopped growing,
I'll take comfort in knowing, this melody has never been
sung,
With these words!

We come and then we go, goodbye!
Our hopes will tend to fall and flee awry.

Try to make the most, even after we all know,
We're giving up the ghost, a final glow before we burn.

I'm hoping it's showing my heart never stopped growing,
I'll take comfort in knowing, this melody has never been
sung,
With these words!

We come and then we go, goodbye!
Our hopes will tend to fall and flee awry.

Oooh, Goodnight!
Oooh, Goodbye!

I'm hoping it's showing my heart never stopped growing,
I'll take comfort in knowing...
