

Misplaced Devotion

The Dear Hunter

Hey girl, let's lose ourselves today.
We can go anywhere we need to get away.
So say the word
and we'll turn around and leave this place behind.

So come on, you're never gonna need him,
that's why you're in my room tonight.
Go on, you know you need it,
that's why you're in my room tonight.

I knew you'd be coming back to me.
I never thought that you'd have the courage to ever leave.
And you are better off sticking right where you are.
