

What Time Taught Us

The Dear Hunter

Love you crawl, it's all coming back now,
But the thing of it is, that it never really was.
Intuition never suited, so I kept it outside.

Be alive, cause nothing last for good or like you thought it would,
Nothings as it seems or what you thought it'd be.

Alive, cause nothing last for good, or like you thought it would,
Nothings as it seems or what you thought it'd be.

Alive, cause nothing last for good or like you thought it would
Nothings as it seems or what you thought it'd be.

Alive, cause nothing last for good or like you thought it would
Nothings as it seems or what you thought it'd be.

Alive, cause nothing last for good or like you thought it would
Nothings as it seems or what you thought it'd be.

Alive, cause nothing last for good or like you thought it would
Nothings as it seems or what you thought it'd be.
