

Porcelain

The Defiled

Look up and over
I'm inside you

Your skin so pretty with
Shades of black and blue

I need you now
I need you helpless on the floor

Do as you're told
I will consume you to the core

A controlling beast,
The ultimate release

For a twisted heart
Helpless and torn apart

Calm and compliant
In my sweet restrain

Looking so fragile my
Blue-veined porcelain

I need you now, I need to Give you all my shame

There is no safe word here
Because this is not a game

A controlling beast,
The ultimate release

For a twisted heart,
Helpless and torn apart

If you could see in me, with your attentive eyes
I want to taste you empty, exposing what's inside

A controlling beast,
The ultimate release

For a twisted heart,
Helpless and torn apart
