

Saints And Sinners

The Defiled

'till I'm complete
'till I've destroyed
'till everything goes back to
A place within that is no more
A place one can't imagine

Drive through religion for jaded minds
A social order of blatant lies
Oblivious the ignorant march side by side
Side by side

Blood red skies
And tears in eyes
Screaming children perish
A world collapse
They run like rats
Eternal void of us

Drive through religion for jaded minds
A social order of blatant lies
Oblivious the ignorant march side by side
Side by side
