Well the first thing I remember, was the way She smiled And the way she looked at me, drivin' me wild She was dressed to kill in her five inch Heels, her painted On satin pants She had the look of need, like, give it to me, I decided I Should take a chance If you see Kay, tell her I want her If you see Kay, tell her I need her If you see Kay, tell her I want her now Her legs were long shapely, I could see her Love was hot And when it came together, she'd give you all She's got She had the walk of a woman on fire, her eyes Undressed My mind and soul I woulda gladly bet my last ten buck, in love She'd lose Control If you see Kay, tell her I want her If you see Kay, tell her I need her If you see Kay, tell her I want her now I had her in my dreams, three times every Night Her love was so complete, her love was warm And right When I wake up in the morning, with this Achin' in my Heart. You can bet the need I'm feelin', is only just A start I felt the pressure risin', when I looked Where she had been By the time I gave up hope, she'd probably Fall in love Aqain If you see Kay, tell her I want her If you see Kay, tell her I need her If you see Kay, tell her I want her now If you see Kay (if you see Kay), tell her I Need her If you see Kay, tell her I need her If you see Kay, tell her I want her now If you see Kay, tell her I want her If you see Kay, tell her I need her If you see Kay, tell her I want her now
