

Aces And Twos

The Devil Makes Three

In my dreams I laugh and smoke
Everybody screams when I tell them jokes
Well now I like to gamble but I sure don't ever lose
Got a closet full of pin striped three piece suits

I tell ya now, I pull aces
You pull twos
Come on now, when I wake up I don't know what to do

I battle demons in the dead of the night
I don't come home until the sun shines bright
Well now I walk with Jesus
Is he walking with me?
So hard to tell when everybody's on the same streets

I tell ya now, I pull aces
He pulls twos
Come on now, when I wake up I don't know what to do

I drive a Cadillac a million miles long
In the back you can't hear my radio on
Howlin' Wolf will give a spoonful to you
But in my dreams a spoonful sure won't do

I tell ya now, I pull aces
He does too
Come on now, when I wake up I don't know what to do

I battle demons in the dead of the night
I don't come home until the sun shines bright
I walk with Jesus
Is he walking with me?
It's so hard to tell when everybody's on the same streets

I tell ya now, I pull aces
He does too
Come on now, when I wake up I don't know what to do
