

Do Wrong Right

The Devil Makes Three

I'd rather be a devil living life on a tear
Than be an angel at a church affair
Like electric sound in the deep of the night
Burnin down the house along with everything in sight

I ain't crazy or a nut just to give you people some Quiet in the head ain't no way to get it done
If you're gonna raise a ruckus, one word of advice
If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right

If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right
If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right
You wanna make a little mess, you wanna make a little crime
If you're gonna do wrong better do wrong right

Ride around the lamb to all the little towns
While my blood gets boiling when that racket buckles loud
Fire up the motors, we got all of us in
Spread the red all over town and do it all again

Well most things that I know, I didn't learn in class
The road don't go forever, so ride it while it lasts
If you're gonna raise a ruckus, one word of advice
If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right

If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right
If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right
You wanna make a little mess, you wanna make a little crime
If you're gonna do wrong better do wrong right

I'd rather be a devil in a life on a tear
Than be an angel at a church of hell
Like electric sound in the deep of the night
Burnin down the house along with everything in sight

I'm an electric demon son with a feelin and a right
We lay it down tonight, yeah, we lay it down tonight
If you're gonna raise a ruckus, one word of advise
If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right

If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right
If you're gonna do wrong buddy do wrong right
You wanna make a little mess, you wanna make a little crime
If you're gonna do wrong better do wrong right
