

Dear tomorrow
Find some sensibility
Respond to emotion
Dear politician,
Define sagacity,
One after another, no one stand behind the ones they have chose
One after another, no one stand behind the ones they've selecte d
No one stand behind the nation they've selected
All changes of survival are beginning to diminish
Comedy is no excuse for our own blasphemies
Mass media/mass pessimism/mass denial
My television tells me to panic, but I don't think I'll listen
The apathetic force us to persevere
The apathetic, with their backwards priorities
If only the strongest of stone was not necessary
One after another, no one stands behind the ones they have chosen
One after another, no one stands behind the ones they've select ed
No one stands behind the nation they've selected
We could build a monument for memory:
Liberation includes a failure
Your rebellion is resultless
So be angry at yourself
If only we did not deserve this
