

Careless Love

The Devlins

Nothing hurts more than a careless love
Nothing hurts more than a careless love
Nothing hurts more than a heart that's ready to break
When you've given all you've got and you've taken as much as you can take
Nobody has to win or lose
Nobody has to make it last
All I wanted, all I wanted was the truth
Not a careless love

Nothing could have stopped you from a dangerous mistake
And in the stillness of the night you know the price you've got to pay
Nobody has to live a lie, nobody has to take the blame
All I needed, all I needed was the truth
Not a careless love
Careless love

Nothing hurts more than a careless love
Nothing hurts more than a careless love
No, no
No, no

Nothing hurts more than a careless love
