

Sunrise

The Devlins

Sunrise happening, right in front of my eyes
Real life happening, somewhere just out of sight
Sometimes I can see, how good it's supposed to be
The wave lifts and carries me
Your love..

Won't you let me stay
Underneath the waves

Something's happening ,summer sun on your skin
I can feel it coming
Surf's up baby, let's begin

Won't you let me stay
Underneath the waves
It's the price you pay
And forever is a life away

It's alright..

Won't you let me stay
Underneath the waves
It's the price you pay
And forever is a life away
And forever is a life away

It's alright..
