i want you before we retire and it's all i require girl and i'm asking of you you know that your mouth's wide so don't you deny it if you do i won't buy it girl what you're putting me through so dummy up dummy up dummy up i want you to dummy up you don't stop day by day you're nothing but chatter what the hell does it matter girl you've got nothing to say whine whine like julio gallo it's the patter that's shallow girl it's the price that you pay every day's like a floor show listening to a talking torso asking me to open wide take it outside i don't want to hear you - please dummy up don't want to be near you - please dummy up end of conversation is the situation if you'll only dummy up you've incurred my wrath you know you should fear it but you don't even hear it girl
