

Welcome To The Diamond Mine

The Dickies

Now we go into the diamond mine
Nobody knows what we might find
Leftover licks from Jimmy Page
Parsley, sage, "Rosemary" and thyme

Don't take me down
You're gonna lose your marbles in the diamond mine
Don't take me down
Welcome to the diamond mine

People tellin' me it's dark down here
There's nothin' to fear except fear itself
Jellybeans are poppin' outta my fez
Simple Simon says, "You better hang on to your elf!"

Don't take me down
I don't want to lose my marbles in the diamond mine
Don't take me down
Welcome to the diamond mine

Don't tell me that you're cursed with a yardstick for the universe
Don't be afraid of what you'll find
