The Dillinger Escape Plan

Surprise! it's not what you thought as it runs a dead stop light you're the fool and we won't look back let's tie those ankles to the railroad don't stop to catch your breath i bet your foresight never saw this train wreck is right on time a fucking punk rock prostitute pick the open vein to shreds you should know that you're my death wish bible thumping steeple fuck you are the worst of all, scum we were young and we were god far away from us now
we don't want it,
what you've got
we don't want it
and you've got it
she took my hand but i never took hers
