

Final Chapter

The Dirty Youth

We said never
Give into temptation
I feel this addiction
Tears me up inside

You're not perfect
Full of tiny defects
Complicating rejects
Always left behind

I can't resist complication

This is the end
I see you fall to pieces
Don't tell me now
You can't take this

You can't pretend
That you were thinking OK
Don't tell me lies
You deserve this

This cuts deeper
Scars that last forever
I tried to surrender
Losing all my pride

This final chapter
No 'happy ever after'
Can you hear the laughter
As I bite my tongue

I can't resist complications

This is the end
I see you fall to pieces
Don't tell me now
You can't take this

You can't pretend
That you were thinking OK
Don't tell me lies
You deserve this

Confused you all
As justice comes calling
Don't tell me now
You can't take this

This is the end
I see you fall (fall, fall)
Don't tell me know
You can't take this
