

I feel so lost in this perfect horizon
I just can't stop craving more
Now you've become my religion
You're all that I'm breathing for
You changed the balance corrupted existence
Ignited flames that I just can't ignore
And now I have made my decision
You're all that I want and more

I'll give you my soul
I'll surrender everything I am
I just don't feel whole
When I'm not with you
I'll give you my soul
I'll surrender everything I am
I just don't feel whole
When I'm not with you

That perfect energy we embrace
A cadence of chaos and love
Always searching for perfection
That only comes from above
That vacant void that's left on your face
The type of look that you just can't ignore
Now I have found a reason
A reason worth living for

I'll give you my soul
I'll surrender everything I am
I just don't feel whole
When I'm not with you
I'll give you my soul
I'll surrender everything I am
I just don't feel whole
When I'm not with you

I'll give you my soul
I'll surrender everything I am
I just don't feel whole
When I'm not with you
I'll give you my soul
I'll surrender everything I am
I just don't feel whole
When I'm not with you
