

Just Move On

The Dirty Youth

You had the chance to walk away
But every time you chose to stay
She crossed the line and went too far
Why did you forget who you are?

As seen on TV
Domestic frenzy
The words of wisdom that just keep flying past you
(It's on the radio)
Broadcast in stereo
Why can't you wake up, wake up, wake up?

You're wasting time
Another day, another hour gets away
And all the time I wanna say to you:

Keep telling yourself that you should know better
You should give up,
It's time to forget her
She's not coming home and you shouldn't let her
Just move on!

Keep telling yourself that you should know better
You should give up
It's time to forget her
She's not coming home and you shouldn't let her
Just move on!

She's crossed the line again
She's got another man
I think I've heard this story before

Why don't you take a chance?
Take a chance on me
You know that this could last forever

As seen on TV
Domestic frenzy
The words of wisdom that just keep flying past you
(It's on the radio)
Broadcast in stereo
Why can't you wake up, wake up, wake up?

You're wasting time
Another day, another hour gets away
And all the time I wanna say to you:

Keep telling yourself that you should know better
You should give up
It's time to forget her
She's not coming home and you shouldn't let her
Just move on!

Keep telling yourself that you should know better
You should give up
It's time to forget her
She's not coming home and you shouldn't let her

Just move on!

Keep telling yourself that you should know better
You should give up
It's time to forget her
She's not coming home and you shouldn't let her
Just move on!

Keep telling yourself that you should know better
You should give up
It's time to forget her
She's not coming home and you shouldn't let her
Not coming home and you shouldn't let her
Just move on!
