

Ten Seconds To Midnight

The Divine Comedy

Ten Apes turn into men
and grapes turn into wine
How we made it to nine I'll never know

Eight Man looks for a mate
but fate plays cruel tricks And seven turns to six still he's alone

Along comes number five Eureka I'm alive
I think therefore I am a lucky man

Three
From this balcony
the two of us can see The place where we first met one wet sunday
