The Divine Comedy

Take me out tonight Where there's music and there's people who are young and alive Driving in your car I never never want to go home, because I haven't got one anymor е Take me out tonight Because I want to see people and I want to see lights Driving in your car Oh please don't drop me home, because it's not my home It's their home, and I'm welcome no more And if a double-decker bus crashes into us To die by your side is such a heavenly way to die And if a ten tonne truck kills the both of us To die by your side, well, the pleasure and the privilege is mi ne Take me out tonight Oh take me anywhere, I don't care And in a darkened underpass I thought Oh God, my chance has com e at last (but then a strange fear gripped me and I just couldn't ask) Take me out tonight Take me anywhere, I don't care Just driving in your car I never never want to go home, because I haven't got one I haven't got one...
